A Non-Suit Granted in a Big Damage Case.

MONTAGUE SENT UP FOR A YEAR.

Frank Coloney and William Haight Bear Him Company-Criminal Cases Set for Trial.

The trial of the case of Joseph H. Slater vs. the Union Pacific railway company was resumed in the Third district court yesterday. The plaintiff, who is twenty-two years of age, claimed that while he was working in a lumber yard in the western part of the city on November 22, 1890, a train of cars was backed into the yard. There was no one at the end of the train to see that the track was clear of people, nor was any signal of the approach of the train caught by the train and one of his feet crushed and mangled, causing him great pain and perhaps crippling him for life, He asked for $10,000 actual damages and $5,000 plaintive damages. The defense denied that there was any carolessness at all on the part of the railroad company, and at the close of the plaintiff's case moved for a non suit on the ground that no negligence had been shown. This motion was sustained and the trial terminated abruptly.

Baldwin & Tatlock, the attorneys for the plaintiff, took an exception and will appear from Judge Anderson's ruling.

AND ONE MORE.

William Haight, a young man who was indicted at the last term on two charges of forgery, was arraigned and withdrew his former plea of not guilty and entered a plea of guilty to both indictments. Mr. Williams, the defendant's attorney, said he understood that Haight signed his father's name to the checks alleged to be forged and he claimed to have his father's consent to do so. If this was the fact it would do away with the criminal intent, and it was supposed that the father, who was somewhere in Idaho, could be brought here to testify to the fact. All efforts to find Mr. Haight, senior, had failed, so the defendant now pleaded guilty. Mr. Williams called attention to the fact that the defendant was a very young man, and this was his first offense. He hoped that he honor would take these facts into consideration and be as lenient as possible, Judge Anderson sentenced Haight to one year's imprisonment on the first indictment and suspended sentence on the second for three months.

REMARKABLE RESCUE. Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill.. makes the statement that she caught cold. which settled on her lungs: she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to ber delight found herself benefited from the first dose. She continued its use and after taking ten bottles, found herself sound and well, now does her own house sound and well, now does her own house work and is as well as she ever was. The woeful expression of a Des Moines teamster's countenance showed his deep anxiety was not entirely without cause, when he inquired of a druggist of the same city what was beat to give a baby for a cold. It was not necessary for him to say more; his countenance showed that the pet of the family, if not the idol of his life, was in distress. "We give our baby Chamber-lains over the counter was a constant of the counter was a consta of the family, if not the idol of his life, was in distress. "We give our baby Chamberlain's cough remedy," was the druggist's answer. "I don't like to give the baby such strong medicine," said the teamster. "You know John Oleson, of the Watters Talbot Printing company, don't you?" inquired the druggist. "His baby, when eighteen months old, got hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's cough remedy and drapk the sough remedy and drank the whole of it. Of course it made the baby vomit very freely, but did not injure it in the least, and what is more, it cured the baby's cold. It is not necessary to give poisons to cure a cold or for croup either." The teamster already knew the value of the remedy, having used it himself, and was now satisfied that there was no danger in giving it even to a baby. For sale by Z. C. M. I. drug dep't.

PNEUMONIA AND BRONCHITIS CARRY OFF ONE-THIRD OF THE HUMAN RACE.

It is not generally known that pneumonia and bronchitis carry off one-third of the human race, but such are the facts, and what is more surprising, both of the above diseases result from neglecting a common ordinary cold. A cough should never be neglected. If it is, svery time you catch cold you cough harder, and it sticks by you longer. Ballard's horehound syrup is the best remedy in the world for pneumonia, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. If you have any throat trouble, call for Ballard's horehound syrup and take no other.—10 ONE-THIRD OF THE HUMAN RACE. and take no other.—10
